

ILCNSW News Release

7 November, 2011

ILC @ Return2Sport Expo

Royal Rehabilitation Centre Sydney (RRCS) organised the inaugural Return2Sport Expo held on 3 November 2011. This was supported by around 50 community sports and recreation organisations for people with a disability and other services, such as the Independent Living Centre NSW, that assist connecting people with recreation and sporting activities.

The Hon. Graham Annesley, NSW Minister for Sport and Recreation, opened the Expo and enjoyed spending time meeting people at the Expo and finding out more about the sport and recreation needs of people with disabilities.

Demonstration games were played throughout the day enabling everyone to learn and have some fun!

Return2Sport Expo included NSW Sport and Recreation · Paralympic Committee · Wheelchair Sports NSW · Sports4ALL · dis-Abled Motorsports Group · NSW Water Ski Association · Surfers with Disabilities · Swimming · Sailability · Riding For the Disabled · Wheelies With Wings · Disabled Wintersport Australia · Amputee Golfers Association · Boccia · Tennis · Goalball · Special Olympics · Tenpin Bowling · Volleyball · Yoga and many more.....

picture L to R: The Hon. Graham Annesley (NSW Minister for Sport and Recreation), Hamish Murray (ILC Access Consultant), Harriet Korner (ILC Client Services Manager)

The Independent Living Centre NSW was excited to provide information on all the practicalities of participating in sport – communication, transport, access, equipment and self-care. Interest in Augmentative and Alternative Communication – AAC – included Apps for iPads, light technology communication books and speech generating devices. If you would like some information about sports and recreation activities – check out our @Magic website for our updated information - coming soon....